Staenberg – Loup Jewish Community Center in Denver Hosts Variety of Events this Fall for People of all Ages, Faiths and Backgrounds

JCC Denver features new “Explore Colorado” series, crafting events, holiday events and more

DENVER, Colo., September 25, 2019 – This fall, the Staenberg-Loup Jewish Community Center (JCC Denver) is hosting a variety of events to create community and bring people together in fun and engaging ways through events for people of all ages, faiths and backgrounds. The community center is featuring a new event series called “Explore Colorado,” encouraging people to explore the state together. The JCC Denver is also hosting crafting events and events surrounding Jewish holidays.

Highlighted events, details and dates are as follows:

Community Sukkah Decoration, Sunday, Oct. 13, 10-11:30 a.m.: Create construction paper chain links, paint beautiful masterpieces, or just hang while you do some crafts to get our Sukkah ready for the upcoming harvest holiday of Sukkot. Free to attend.

Explore Colorado: Golden Gate State Park Hike and Craft, Saturday, Oct. 19, 10-11:30 a.m.: Join us at Golden Gate State Park for a nature hike, story time, and fun forest art project. We will start with a PJ Library story about the changing leaves and then look for some on our short nature walk. The walk will end with a fun art project with the leaves we collected! Free for members, $15 per family for guests. Costs listed do not include state park entrance fee.

Cut the Craft Happy Hour Jewelry Making, Wednesday, Oct. 23, 5-7 p.m.: Looking for a unique happy hour event with your colleagues or friends? Bring your creativity and join us in making your own wrap bracelet. Show your style by selecting from a variety of beads that you will thread onto leather cord and finish with a button clasp. Bracelet wraps around wrist 3- 4 times. Expect to finish one bracelet. Drinks and snacks provided. $30 for members, $40 for guests. Ages 16+.

Explore Colorado: Blue Moon Brewery Tour, Saturday, Nov. 16, 3:45-4:45 p.m.: Join your friends from the JCC as you take a private VIP Tour at the Blue Moon Brewery. This
